Cancer Crusade Exceeds Goal

Local Unit Seeks Equipment

The April Cancer Crusade exceeded the "fair share" goal suggested by state headquarters, county chairman Dr. A. A. Fratrick told the local unit Monday evening. Receipts to date total $1,324.30, the treasurer Mrs. Alma Hudson reported. The county goal was set at $1300. Cancer Crusade chairman for Virginia, Morrell M. Crow, sent a congratulatory letter to the Appomattox unit.

Explains United Fund

Dr. Fratrick told the group the proposed United Fund for Appomattox is a "good thing". He said, however, that the local Cancer Unit is set up for publicity and education about cancer. He added that though finances are important, it is most important that the public get the facts about cancer and its control. "Cancer will be conquered probably by research," he said, "but the problem is here now." And he says that the American Cancer Society feels it can best do its work by waging an independent campaign each year. Thus, the Appomattox Cancer Unit will continue a yearly drive. Fratrick said that he hopes the people will continue their interest in all charity work, and that the proposed United Fund will cut down on the burden of frequent solicitation for other worthwhile causes.

Seek Equipment

The current budget of $161 will permit the unit to buy some equipment for the Rescue Squad's linen closet, Fratrick said. Graham Pitsenberger has asked to secure prices on new or used wheelchairs, walkers, and crutches.

Literature and Films

Three sets of literature for research and reading will be ordered for the county library, Appomattox High School, and Carver-Price, said Frank Chuchek, public information committee chairman. Rev. O. D. Moore has been asked to present cancer education films to the Lions Club; Earl Smith, to Ruritans in the county; and Mrs. John Harrison, count Home Demonstration Club president, to the various wo-
